COLUMBUS – Sporting Columbus and Zochowski Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery today announced a major, two -year sponsorship agreement making Zochowski Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery a training jersey partner. The sponsorship represents a significant relationship as it is the first transaction for the back panel of the training jersey.

All training jerseys will prominently incorporate the Zochowski Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery logo. Sporting Columbus teams are set to debut new training jerseys in August, 2020.

“The reputation of Dr. Christopher Zochowski as one of the best plastic surgeons in Ohio along with his commitment to helping patients in their hour of need are powerful forces and we are honored to proudly stand alongside Dr. Zochowski,” said Sporting Columbus President Jeffrey Warren. “Zochowski Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery and Sporting Columbus are both committed to positively impacting our community, and this partnership represents the collaborative capabilities of two brands that firmly believe in Central Ohio.”

“As a resident of New Albany, the community is very important to me,” said Dr. Christopher Zochowski. “We look forward to our new partnership with Sporting Columbus, and to working together to take the soccer experience in Central Ohio to the next level.”

ABOUT SPORTING COLUMBUS

Sporting Columbus aspires to be the finest youth sports organization and an integral part of player growth (on and off the field). By promoting development and sportsmanship in an enjoyable environment, Sporting Columbus encourages a healthy lifestyle and love of sports in its players. Sporting Columbus was founded in 2018 by Dave Merrick, Geoff Starks and Jeffrey Warren, partners over the past 20 years in various youth sports ventures including seven years as Columbus Crew SC player development directors. Each founder brings his own set of skills from coaching to business development that overlap and work well together to set-up Sporting Columbus to succeed at achieving its mission.
